

3 STARS & 1 WISH

- * I like how you explain our questions clearly
- * Like how we do little activities after, to understand what we've just read
- * Like how everyone is involved in class
- Have time to discuss with classmates about what to do before starting what we're going to do

★

- I like how you keep the class involved by asking questions often.

- You learned our names super fast.

- different ways you teach.

- asking questions - power point

- making us act etc.

WISH

- more ways to average out our grades.

3★ and a wish

* I really like how we took notes before we started reading the book. It gave me a good understanding of what the 'American Dream' was and its importance.

* - I like how you go over the question and answers regarding the scene we just read.

* - I like how you sometimes pause and go over what just happened & go over fancy words

Wish: Summarizing what happened previously, (I don't really know, anything to boost my mark up)
